PREFACE.

THE following Tables of Deſcents are publiſhed with a View of pointing out ſome of the Traces of the Blood of Thomas Chichele of Higham-Ferrers, which may be found in the Families of the Nobility and Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland; in order to facilitate the Enquiries of thoſe Gentlemen who may be inclined to become Candidates for Fellowſhips at ALL SOULS COLLEGE in Oxford, on the Claim of Collateral Conſanguinity with his Son HENRY CHICHELE, Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, the Founder. This Qualification is now, indeed, abſolutely neceſſary to form their Approaches to theſe Competitions; and to endeavour to make the Way plain and level before them, and to widen it, where it may be properly done, ſo as to admit a greater Number of Adventurers, and to give a larger and freer Choice to the College at all future Elections, will, it is hoped, be no unacceptable Service to the Public and to the Society.

IT is well known that the COLLEGE OF ALL SOULS hath, with great Reluctance, for theſe forty years paſt, admitted the Claim of Conſanguinity as implying a Preference in their Election of Fellows. Though they were bound by the ſtricteſt Ties of Religion to admit the Kinſmen of their Founder, (when any ſuch ſhould be offered to them,) they have never ſcrupled to reject the Claimants, within the foregoing Period, and they think they had ſufficient Reaſons, (at leaſt they had Reaſons[a] hitherto unanſwered,) for doing ſo. They ſuppoſed that, after a lapſe of three Centuries, the Conſanguinity in Queſtion muſt have expired. They found, upon Enquiry, that no Law, which had made Collateral Conſanguinity it's Object, had ever extended it beyond ten Degrees at the utmoſt; a Boundary which hath been exceeded by every Candidate for theſe laſt forty Years. They ſaw the unavoidable Neceſſity of it's having a Boundary ſomewhere; becauſe the contrary Suppoſition implied the infinite Extenſion of it, which took away the Diſtinction of thoſe who were of the Kindred, and thoſe who were not ſo; and deſtroyed this Claim to Preference in any one Candidate above another. They perſiſted therefore in rejecting the Claimants, in hopes, at leaſt, that if this Conduct was not approved of, they might obtain from their Viſitor ſome very explicit Directions to regulate their Behaviour for the future. But in theſe Expectations they have always been diſappointed. In the many Struggles they have had on this Account (for the rejected Claimants frequently appealed to the Viſitor for Redreſs) they were always told that they had erred in rejecting them, but it was never ſaid from what miſtaken Principle they had erred, nor any Rule given them for avoiding the ſame Error in any ſubſequent Election. They were ſtill determined, however, if poſſible, to puſh this Matter to a Point; and therefore, in the Month of July 1761, they petitioned their Viſitor that he would be pleaſed to determine, Whether the Collateral Kindred, referred to by their Founder in his Statutes, was conſidered by him as ſubſiſting without End; or, whether it muſt be ſuppoſed to ceaſe at ſome certain Period, and what that Period was. To this Requeſt they received an Anſwer to the following Purpoſe, viz. That, no caſe exiſting which required any ſuch Determination, the Application of the College at that Time was improper: And that the Viſitor ought not to make an extrajudicial Declaration which might affect the Intereſts, and prejudge the Claims, of future Candidates for Fellowſhips; but reſerve himſelf to hear what might be ſaid on each Side of theſe Queſtions, when they were brought regularly before him by the Parties concerned[b].

ENCOURAGED by this Anſwer, which gave the Society no little Cauſe to hope that theſe Queſtions would be finally decided, when brought regularly before the Viſitor, the College took the firſt Opportunity, at the next Election in November following, to reject the Claimants on the Plea of Conſanguinity; and defended their Conduct, at the Hearing of the Appeals which enſued, not

[b] And yet, it may not be impoſſible but that the Gentlemen of the College were regular enough in this Sort of Application to their Viſitor: For,

1. HE is by the Founder declared to be Viſitor in ordinary, and Interpreter of the Statutes; which is the Style that the Viſitors of ALL SOULS have conſtantly made uſe of in their Injunctions and Mandates.

2. THIS Power of explaining and interpreting the Statutes was undoubtedly lodged with Him to prevent Diſputes and Miſunderſtandings ariſing from any real, or ſuppoſed, Ambiguities or Difficulties in them. But the determining the Appeal of a particular Claimant, without giving the Reaſons on which that Determination is founded, will probably contain in it no Explanation of a Statute, or prevent future Diſputes concerning the meaning of it: And the Truth of this may be obſerved in the preſent Caſe.

3. THE Gentlemen of the College did not apprehend that the Explaining of a Statute, in order to regulate their Conduct at all future Elections, could be called, in any ill Senſe, a prejudging the Claims of future Candidates. The Explanatory Statute, or Injunction, of the Viſitor, would have been of equal Authority with the Statute explained; and would have differed nothing from it, but in being more clear, preciſe, and directive. And this could have been no Injuſtice to the Intereſts of future Claimants, as all their ſtatutable Rights would hereby have been put upon a ſafer and more indiſputable Footing. —— In ſhort, the College may perhaps lament, as the moſt fruitful Source of it's Misfortunes, that forenſic Method of Proceeding to which the Viſitors have been generally pleaſed to ſubmit their Juriſdiction; and yet the Method, allowed of and pointed out by the Words of the Statutes, is that of proceeding ſummarie, de plano, et EXTRAJUDICIALITER. Nothing elſe, we are certain, could have given an unfavourable Aſpect to any Deciſion of the preſent moſt Reverend Viſitor; whoſe perſonal Candor, and good Intentions towards them, the Gentlemen of the Society will always be bound to acknowlege.

on any perſonal Objections to the Claimants, or by taking Exceptions to their particular Pedigrees, but on the general Arguments of the Probability that all Collateral Conſanguinity to the Founder had long ago ceaſed; of the Neceſſity of it's ceaſing, at ſome Time or other; or, ſuppoſing it never to ceaſe, of it's being Univerſal, and therefore undiſtinguiſhable in any one Candidate more than in another.

But, whatever Reaſons they had at this time to flatter themſelves with the Expectations of a final Deciſion of theſe Difficulties, they found themſelves, as uſual, utterly diſappointed in the Event. The Claimants, as in all former Appeals, were pronounced to be of the Blood, Kindred, and Lineage of the Founder; but it was not declared upon what Principle they were ſo, more than the two Gentlemen whom the College had elected, or the reſt of the World at large; nor any Anſwer given to the grand Queſtion, Whether collateral Conſanguinity is to be conſidered as ſubſiſting without End; or whether it muſt be ſuppoſed to ceaſe at ſome certain Period, and what that Period is?

After this Attempt, therefore, the College found itſelf as much at a Loſs as ever; and being ſufficiently tired of ſo fruitleſs a Search after the Extent, Limits and Boundaries of collateral Conſanguinity, it may now be ſuppoſed that it will be purſued no farther, and that the Gentlemen of this Society will make themſelves as eaſy as poſſible in this their indeterminate Situation. But in order hereto, though their Viſitor hath not vouchſafed to give them any Rule for the Direction of their Conduct in this Point, yet it will be neceſſary for them to lay down ſome Principle by which they may guide themſelves in future Elections. And ſurely they may, with the utmoſt Deference and Reſpect to him, whom their Founder hath ſet over them, preſume to ſuppoſe (though they would have been much better pleaſed to have been explicitly told ſo) that the collateral Conſanguinity to their Founder muſt ſubſiſt without End, or extend at leaſt as far as the Deſcendants of Thomas Chichele, his Father, can be traced out with ſufficient Evidence. The Reaſon for this Preſumption is clear: The Viſitor's Deciſions have already ratified the Claims of Conſanguinity far beyond ten Degrees[c], which were the utmoſt Limits heretofore allowed to it, and therefore, without ſome poſitive Directions from him (which they have hitherto failed of obtaining) they are not at Liberty to ſuppoſe that any Boundary can be ſet to it even at the fiftieth or five hundredth. And upon this Foot they, or any private Perſons, (as is the preſent Caſe) who ſhall undertake it for them, may be juſtified in the Attempt to lay open the Pedigrees of Conſanguinity to the Chichele Family, in order to enlarge the Number of Candidates at all future Elections. Within theſe few Years paſt, the Founder's Kindred have increaſed ſo as to be ſufficient to ſupply two or three Vacancies in a Year, which are as many as the general Succeſſion of the College will afford; and hereby all Liberty of Election is precluded. Now the only remaining Redreſs for this Evil will be obtained by multiplying the Kindred by all fair and poſſible Means. And this, we truſt, may ſoon be done to ſome Effect; eſpecially as the Kinſmen of CHICHELE may be Candidates for Fellowſhips, in whatever Part of the World they may happen to be born; a Privilege which with regard to all others, not of the Kindred and Lineage, is confined to the Province of Canterbury.

IN proſpect that this might one Day be the Situation of the Society, one of it's Members, about fourteen Years ago, employed ſome of his leiſure Hours, in collecting and digeſting the Pedigrees of the Deſcendants of Thomas Chichele into a regular Series, and in connecting with them ſuch new Families as he could diſcover to be inconteſtibly allied to them. He had always been of the Opinion, that an unlimited collateral Conſanguinity implied it's Univerſality; and he was willing to try how far the Conſanguinity of Arch-Biſhop CHICHELE, though deduced from no other common Stock than that of his Father, had, in the Courſe of ſomething more than three hundred Years, advanced towards it. He had ſoon the Pleaſure to find, that ſome of the beſt authenticated Pedigrees were connected with thoſe of the Nobility and Baronetage. This facilitated his Search, and gave a Stability to his Diſcoveries, and, at the ſame time, opened a Proſpect of the ſame Sort of Connections with the Families of the leſſer Gentry and Commonalty; which, though he could not trace them through in many Inſtances, will undoubtedly be inveſtigated with Eaſe by Multitudes who may be particularly, and reſpectively, concerned in them. --- When this Gentleman quitted the Society, about five Years ago, he left his Collections in the Poſſeſſion of one of his Friends, to whoſe entire Diſpoſal he conſigned them.

IN the Hands of this Perſon, who is the Editor, they have been enlarged with many additional Families and Continuations of others before diſcovered. For many of theſe Supplies he is obliged to ſeveral Gentlemen, who very readily contributed their Information. To ſome of theſe he thinks himſelf bound to expreſs his particular Acknowlegements. He is indebted to the Honourable and Reverend Dr Tracy for an Account of the Deſcendants of Dorothy Tracy by William Higford[d]. To the Honourable Wriotheſley Digby Eſq; for the Deſcendants of Lady Dorothy Shirley by John Cotes Eſq; of Woodcote in Shropſhire[e]. telers of Biddenham[g]. To Thomas Stonor Esq; of Stonor in Oxfordshire, for the very accurate Account of that ancient Family, from the Marriage of his Ancestor Thomas Stonor with Elizabeth Neville, Daughter of Henry Lord Abergavenny[h]. To James Montagu Esq; of Lackham, Wilts, for the Pedigree of that Family from James Montagu, third Son of Henry Earl of Manchester, who first settled at Lackham[i]. To William Sheldon Esq; of Weston in Warwickshire, for the Descendants from his Ancestor Edward Sheldon by his Marriage with Catherine Constable[k]. To Henry Seymer Esq; of Handford, Dorset, for the Account of the Families of Seymer and Lynch, the Descendants of Amy and Mary Wake[l]. To Dr Lysons, Physician at Gloucester, and F. A. S. To Richard Bourne Esq; D. L. L. and F. A. S. C. for the Account of the Family of Wild, of Worcester, from Anne Tracy[n]. To the Reverend Mr. Nicolas Toke, F. A. S. C. for an exact Account of the Descendants from Dr. Matthew Wren, Dean of Windsor, by his Wife Elizabeth Beaumont[p].

This List of Contributors to the following Tables might have been carried to a much greater Length, had not the Editor confined his Enquiries to those Families, to which his own Acquaintance, or that of his most intimate Friends gave them an easy Access. He very soon perceived, indeed, that the endeavouring to follow every Train, or Notice of Consanguinity, would lead him into endless Researches, and this brought him to recollect, that it was his proper Business to point out the wider and more public Channels of it, and to leave the lesser, and more private ones, to be traced out by those who might be more immediately concerned with them.

It may now be asked, perhaps, of what Authority will the following Tables be in the Estimation of the College at future Elections? What hath been already said will be sufficient to supply us with an Answer to this Question. The

The whole Design of these Tables is to point out the Channels of the Chichele Blood; the Marriages, therefore, which did not contribute to the conducting of it from one Family to another, are entirely omitted in them; and, in general, no Notice is taken of the Children of any Descent where it was absolutely certain that they died without Issue. This was the Plan at first laid down, and therefore all subsequent Acquisitions, from private Information, were obliged to conform to it.

authenticated Pedigrees, preſerved in the Archives of the College, are the chief Foundation on which they reſt. As far as theſe extend, eſpecially ſuch of them as have been ratified and confirmed by the Determinations of Viſitors, or the free Elections of the College, (and theſe may be eaſily diſtinguiſhed [q]) the Authority of the Tables will not, we imagine, for the future, be oppoſed by the Society. The next Support of them is the Pedigrees of the Nobility, Baronets, and other Gentry, collected from Dugdale, Collins, Thoroton, Thoreſby, and other Genealogiſts, and Hiſtoriographers of Counties. The Truth and Authenticity of theſe will lie open to every Man's Enquiry, and the College will undoubtedly, in the firſt Inſtance, think itſelf the proper Judge of them; but ſuch of theſe (which is the Caſe of moſt in this Collection) as have conveyed Titles of the higheſt Rank and Dignity for many Succeſſions, and from different Publications have undergone frequent Examinations and Corrections, will, we ſuppoſe, in hardly any material Inſtance, be convicted of Miſtake or Falſhood. The third and laſt Sort of theſe Tables, are thoſe which depend upon the private Informations received by the Editor; and of theſe there is no Doubt but that the Society will expect the uſual Proofs by Copies of Family Pedigrees well authenticated, Extracts from Family Deeds, Pariſh Regiſters &c, whenever any Claim of Conſanguinity ſhall be brought through them [r]. For it muſt always be remembered that the Society hath given no Authority or Sanction to the preſent Publication; it is the Work of mere private Hands, and the College is in no Shape accountable for any Part of it.

If it be aſked what Sort of Evidence of Conſanguinity will ſtand the Teſt of the Viſitatorial Judicatory, this can be only gueſſed at by what hath been admitted as good Proof in Times paſſed. In Deciſions upon Appeals, the Quarterings of a Coat of Arms upon a Tombſtone, the Entry of a Birth or Marriage in a Family Bible, or the Atteſtation of a Gentleman concerning the traditionary Opinion of a Family about the Picture of his Great Grandmother Dorothy, have all, heretofore, been accepted as good and authentic Teſtimony. In ſhort, if we are allowed to judge from ſuch Inſtances, there is no Evidence in Matters of this Sort but what may be ſtrong enough to prove a Conſanguinity to Arch-Biſhop Chichele to the Satisfaction of the Viſitor; and, if we [q] The Names of the Gentlemen elected by the College, or who came into their Fellowſhips by the Viſitor's Mandate, on the Claim of Conſanguinity, are diſtinguiſhed by the following Mark ✠. To the Names of others are added the Letters F. A. S. but theſe are ſuch as either never urged their Claim of Conſanguinity, or at leaſt waved it for an Election, on the common Foot of other Candidates.

[r] Towards the End of theſe Tables, ſome few will be found which are copied from the MS Collections of two very eminent Antiquarians, viz. Mr. Ralph Sheldon, of Beoly, in Worceſterſhire, and Anthony Wood; and theſe are particularly noted, and their Authorities referred to. It is ſuppoſed that they may be farther authenticated, upon Occaſion, from Family Pedigrees &c. Conſidered merely as the Collections of Antiquarians, the Editor knows not in what Rank of Authority to place them.

may be allowed to judge from other Inſtances, it may be dangerous for the Electors to inſiſt too rigidly on having any Evidence at all produced to them: For the Time is well remembered, when the College was condemned in Coſts, for not electing a Candidate, as Founder's Kinſman, whoſe Claim was confeſſedly never proved to them, and who was allowed to patch up his Conſanguinity, with ſubſequent and better Evidence, at the hearing of his Appeal.

ENOUGH hath been ſaid on the Nature and Reaſons of this Publication; but as this ſeems to be the proper Opportunity for delivering all that hath occurred in theſe Reſearches concerning the Chichele Family, we ſhall here collect together the few Notices we have met with of the near, and immediate Relations, of the Founder of ALL SOULS, as a fit Introduction to theſe Tables of the wide and extended Branches of his Lineage, Blood, and Kindred. The Hiſtory and Character of the Arch-Biſhop himſelf ſhall not be here touched upon. It is a Subject as much too ample for the narrow Bounds of this Preface, as it exceeds the Capacity and Abilities of the Writer of it.

IT hath been the general Opinion that Thomas Chichele of Higham-Ferrers, the Father of HENRY CHICHELE Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, was of a low Extraction and a mean Station in Life. He is commonly imagined to have been a Tailor, and this Notion took it's firſt Riſe, perhaps, from the Story of the Affront that was paſſed upon his Son, by one of HENRY the ſixth's Courtiers, in the inſulting Preſent of the Rag-Pye; though there is nothing in the earlier Manner of telling it which fixes the Trade of a Tailor upon the Father[s]. In the older Pedigrees, particularly that of the Harleian Collection, ſome of his Anceſtors are mentioned as ſettled at Higham-Ferrers, though their Rank and Situation in the World is not aſcertained. Dr. Hoveden (Warden of ALL SOULS in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth) who wrote the Life of the Founder in Latin, ſays that he was honeſtis natus parentibus, which ſhould mean that his Parents were of ſome Repute and Credit, on account of their Extraction. THOMAS CHICHELE married Agnes, the Daughter of William Pyncheon, who is allowed, in the Pedigrees, to have been a Gentleman, and hath his Arms blazoned, Or,

[s] In a MS. in the Hand of Mr. Richard Symonds, now in the Harleian Collection, N° 991. 27. this Story is thus related. "One of the Courtiers in Hen.VI's "time ſent, by one of the King's Servants, as from "the King, a Pye full of Rags, as a Preſent to Car-"dinal CHICHELE, as a Scorn to his Extraction, Son "of a Broker or Draper. The Cardinal received the "Meſſenger very civilly, defired him to preſent his "Duty to his Majeſty, and give him many Thanks "for reminding him of a very worthy and affectionate "Parent; and to tell him that he ſhould make it his "conſtant Prayer that his Majeſty might as much out-"go his Father Hen.V. in all Acts of Proweſs and "Virtue, as he had done his in Honour and Prefer-"ments." N.B. CHICHELE was never honoured, or rather (as he would have thought it) diſhonoured, with the Title of Cardinal; and yet this is a Miſtake which ſome of our beſt Antiquarians, viz. Arch-Biſhop Parker and Biſhop Tanner, have very ſtrangely fallen into.

a Bend 3 Plates, with a Border counterchanged azure and ſable. From theſe Circumſtances, and from the Proviſion he made for his Children, in ſetting them forward in the World, it may be preſumed that the Father of the Founder was a reputable and ſubſtantial Tradeſman; but, as Trade in thoſe Days was in no great Eſteem with the Nobility and Courtiers, and the Biſhoprieks were frequently filled with ſome of the beſt Blood of the Kingdom, ſuch as Beaufort, Nevile, Courtenay, Arundel, Stafford, and others, we may eaſily believe, that CHICHELE's Situation at the Head of the Church could not but provoke the Envy of the great Ones both in that and in the State, which would vent itſelf in the propagating Accounts the moſt diſadvantageous to the Credit of his Family. THOMAS CHICHELE died 25 Feb. 1400, as may be ſeen by the Inſcription on his Tombſtone[t] in the north Iſle of the Chancel at Higham-Ferrers, known heretofore by the Name of our Lady's Chapel. He had by his Wife Agnes Pyncheon three Sons, HENRY the Founder of ALL SOULS, Robert, and William; and a Daughter, whoſe Name we find not, and of whom we know no more but that ſhe married a Gentleman of the Name of Tooke.

ROBERT CHICHELE, the ſecond Son of Thomas, was a Citizen and Grocer, and lived in the Pariſh of St. James Garlyke Hythe in the City of London. By his great Induſtry and Application to Buſineſs he arrived, with a very fair Character, to great Wealth, and Importance, amongſt his Fellow-Citizens. He was cotemporary with, and the intimate Friend of, that eminent Citizen and Merchant Sir Richard Whittington, whom he greatly reſembled in his Knowlege of Trade, as well as in Acts of Charity and Munificence. He had an Eſtate and a Country Houſe at Rumford in Eſſex, where, in the Year 1410, he contributed largely to rebuilding the Chapel, (which was a Chapel of Eaſe to Horn-Church) and obtaining for it, by means of a Compoſition with the Warden and Fellows of New College, who are the Patrons, the Privileges of Sepulture and Cemitery, for the Uſe of the Pariſhioners of Horn-Church that were wont to frequent that Chapel[u]. In the Year 1428, he gave to the Pariſh of St. Stephen Walbrook one Plot of Ground containing 208 Feet and a half in Length, and 66 in Breadth, whereupon to build their new Church, and for their Church-Yard. In the next Year he laid the firſt Stone of the new Church, and gave 100 l. more to the ſaid Work, and bore the Charges of all the Timber-work on the Proceſſion Way, and laid the Lead upon it at his own Coſt. He alſo gave all the Timber for the Roofing of the two ſide Iſles, and paid for the Carriage of it[w]. Beſides many other charitable Legacies[x], too numerous to be here recited, he gives by his laſt Will, dated 17 Dec. 1438, ſeveral Tenements in

It is said by Weever[y] that he ordered, by his Testament, that, on his Birth-day, a competent Dinner should be ordained for 2400 poor Men Housholders of the City of London, and every Man to have two-pence in Money. But the Copy of his Will, now in the Library of ALL SOULS COLLEGE, takes no Notice of this Legacy. He was Sheriff of London in the Year 1403; was Lord Mayor, for the first Time, in the Year 1411; and again, in the Year 1421; and had the Honour of Knighthood conferred upon him.

SIR ROBERT CHICHELE died in the Year 1440, and if we may believe Stow, and if the positive Directions in his Will were observed, was buried in the Church of St. James Garlyke Hythe, of which Parish he calls himself a Parishioner. But Weever[z], by some Mistake in the Assortment of his Collections, to which he was very liable, gives the following Epitaph upon him, as transcribed from the Church of St. Mary Bothaw.

BY one of his Wives, namely Agnes the Daughter of William Apulderfield[a], a Gentleman of an antient Family long seated at Otterpley in the Parish of Challock in Kent, he had a Daughter named Philippa, married to Valentine, otherwise Allan, Chiche, and through whom many of the following Tables are derived[b]. He had another Daughter, who married . . . . Roper, but we find no Issue from this Marriage.

WILLIAM, the third Son of Thomas Chichele, was a Citizen of London, and of the same Trade with his Brother Sir Robert. He was Sheriff in the Year 1410, and afterwards an Alderman. He died in the Year 1425, and by his

Will, dated at Stanwell the 9th of May in the ſame Year, he orders his Body to be buried in our Lady's Chapel in the Pariſh Church of Higham-Ferrers, cloſe to his Father and Mother[c]. He married Beatrice the Daughter of William Barret Eſq; by whom he had Iſſue two Sons and two Daughters, William and John, Florence and Agnes.

FLORENCE CHICHELE had three Huſbands[d], but had Iſſue only by the third, John Darrel of Calehill, Steward to her Uncle the Arch-Biſhop, and Anceſtor to the Darrels of Calehill and Scotney. The Arch-Biſhop purchaſed the Manor and Eſtate of this latter place, of the Family of Aſhburnham; and gave it as a Portion to his Niece, on her Marriage with Darrel, who ſettled it on his younger Son Thomas[e]. Agnes, or Elizabeth, the other Daughter of William Chichele, married a Gentleman of Wales[f].

WILLIAM, the elder Son of William Chichele, was bred a Clergyman, and arrived to conſiderable Preferment in the Church. In the Year 1415, he ſucceeded his Uncle the Arch-Biſhop in the Chancellorſhip of the Church of Sarum; and in 1420 he was collated to the Archdeaconry of Canterbury. Soon after, he was employed in an Embaſſy to the Pope, and died at Rome in the Year 1424[g].

JOHN, the ſecond Son of Alderman Chichele, was a Citizen, and Chamberlain of London; but of what Trade he was doth not appear. He lived in Harp Lane, in a large Houſe which hath ſince been converted into the Baker's Hall[h], and had another Houſe and an Eſtate near Wolwich[i]. He married Margery the Daughter of Sir Thomas Knolles Kt.[k] and by her (for, at leaſt, we find not that he had any other Wife) he had four and twenty Children[l]. We ſhall reckon up

[c] From this Circumſtance, it ſeems probable that the Tombſtone in the Church of Higham-Ferrers with the Figures of a Man and Woman, inlaid with Braſs, (an Engraving of which is placed before the Title-page of theſe Tables) was deſigned for a Memorial of William Chichele and Beatrice his Wife; though it hath generally paſſed for the Monument of Thomas and Agnes. And, indeed, as this latter Pair appear by the Inſcription (ſee Plate II.) to be buried under the adjoining Stone, it is not eaſy to be imagined why another Stone ſhould be added to it as a farther Memorial of them.

[l] Stow, V. I. p. 381. Weever has preſerved the following Epitaph of Sir Thomas Knolles and his Wife, tranſcribed from their Tombſtone in the Pariſh Church of St. Antholin, (Fun. Mon. p. 403.) from whence it may ſeem, that Margery Chichele inherited her prolific Quality from her Mother.

Here lyth grabyn undyr this ſton (bon:
THOMAS KNOLLES both fleſh and
Grocer, and Alderman peres ſothe,
Sheriff, and twis Maior truly:

And

as many of theſe as have come to our Knowlege, with the few particulars we find recorded of them.

1. ROBERT, who ſtands firſt upon the Harleian Pedigree[m], but of whom we know nothing but his Name.

2. THOMAS, a Clergyman. On the 18th of Feb. 1429. he was preſented to the Prebend of Cadington Minor in the Cathedral Church of St. Paul[n], and was collated to the Archdeaconry of Canterbury, 14 Dec. 1433. On the 10th Feb. the ſame Year, he had a Licence under the Privy Seal to take and exerciſe the Office of Prothonotary to the Pope[o]. But it is ſuppoſed that he reſigned the Archdeaconry many Years before his Death: For Thomas Winterbourn is ſtiled Archdeacon of Canterbury, Sept. 1. 1448[p]. He died Jan. 26. 1466, and lies buried in the Church of Wingham in Kent.

3. WILLIAM, who died in his Infancy.

4. WILLIAM, the ſecond, who died young.

5. WILLIAM, the third, who married and had Iſſue John and William (who both died ſ. p.) and a Daughter, Brigidin.

6. JOHN, who died an Infant.

7. JOHN, the ſecond, a Clergyman. He was preſented 28 Aug. 1432. to the Rectory and Vicarage of Sabridgeworth in the Dioceſe of London and Archdeaconry of Middleſex[q]; but he reſigned it the next Year and was preſented, 17 April 1433, by the Biſhop of London, to the Rectory of Thorley, near Biſhop's Stortford in Hertfordſhire[r]. This he alſo reſigned the Year following, and 1 Mar. 1432, being then B. D. he was preſented by the Biſhop of London to the Rectory of St. Mary's in Colcheſter[s]; but this he alſo exchanged with John

And for he ſhold not ly alone,
Here lyth wyth him his good wyff JONE:

ob. Ann. 14 . . . . .

The next Epitaph in Weever is on Thomas the Son of this Thomas Knolles; wherein we are informed that he alſo was, in ſome Degree, a Partaker in the Fruitfulneſs of his Family; for he had by his Wife Iſabel ten Children. So that the Children of Joan Knolles, Thomas her Son, and Margery her Daughter, amounted in the whole, to fifty three.

8. MARTIN, who died young.

9. REGINALD, of whom we find no more than that he was a Clergyman.

10. HENRY, of Wimple in Cambridgeſhire. This ſeems to have been the Favourite of his Great-Uncle the Arch-Biſhop, who purchaſed the Eſtate and Houſe at Wimple, and ſettled them upon him 14 Hen. VI [u]. He married Alicia the Daughter of Sir Robert Clopton Lord Mayor of London [w], by whom he had ſeveral Children; and his Poſterity, in the Male Line, flouriſhed in great Reputation till the Beginning of this Century, when it ended in Richard Chichele, D. LL. who left only one Daughter, the Wife of Chriſtopher Griffiths Eſq; of Padworth in Berkſhire [x].

11. AGNES, or ANNICE. She was firſt married to John Tatterſhall Eſq; to whom her Father, John the Chamberlain, gave in Dowry with her the Manor of Eaſthorn and Wellhall in Kent, which his Father, Alderman Chichele, had bought of the Family of Poultney [y]; and by Margery, her Daughter, this Eſtate came into the Poſſeſſion of the Ropers of Swacliff, the Anceſtors of the preſent Lord Teynham [z]. Her ſecond Huſband was William Kene, otherwiſe Kyme, of Wellhall, where he lived in Right of his Wife [a].

12. KATHERINE, who died unmarried.

13. MARGERY; who died ſ. p.

14. CHRISTIAN; ſhe married Thomas Harvey, or Hervey, of Thirley in Bedfordſhire, by whom ſhe had four Sons and ſix Daughters. The eldeſt of the Sons John Hervey the elder (for there were two of the Name of John) was the Anceſtor of the preſent Earl of Briſtol [b], and of ſeveral other Branches of the Herveys; but we find no Deſcendants from any of his Brethren or Siſters. Mr. Collins ſays [c], that John, the younger, married Margaret, Daughter and Heireſs of William Wickham, Relict of William Fiennes Lord Say; who brought the Blood of the Founder of New College into that antient and noble Family. But, upon the beſt Enquiries that could be made into the Pedigrees of the Wickhamiſts, it doth not appear that ſhe had any Children by John Hervey. It ſeems indeed a little improbable that ſhe ſhould have any; for her Son by her former Huſband was at Man's Eſtate, and married, and had Iſſue, within four Years after the Death of his Father [d].

15. EDITHA; who married firſt, John Burrough; ſecondly, Giles St Cloo, or St Loe, but we know of no Iſſue by either.

16. BEATRIX; who married Sir William Peche, Son and Heir of Sir John Peche of Lullingston in Kent. This Sir William Peche died at Lullingston in the Year 1487, and left Iſſue Sir John Peche Kt. and Banneret [e], who died ſ. p. and Elizabeth who married John Hart Eſq; who in Right of his Wife, upon the Deceaſe of her Brother, became poſſeſſed of Lullingston, and tranſmitted it to his Deſcendants. If Elizabeth Peche was the Daughter of Beatrix Chichele, (and we hear of no other Wife of Sir William Peche) this Family of the Harts may deſerve to be farther enquired after [f].

17. FLORENCE; who married firſt, Robert Savage; ſecondly, John Zouch of Benifield.

18. PHILIPPA, married to Henry Kent, Merchant.

19. ELIZABETH; ſhe married Sir Thomas Kiryol, or *Criol*l [g], of Kent, who by this Marriage became poſſeſſed of Chichele Houſe (as Mr. Stow calls it) where her Father had lived in Harp Lane. This Sir *Thomas Criol*l was a Perſon of great Valour and Reputation. He was made a Knight of the Garter by Hen. VI. He had great Poſſeſſions in Kent, and lived chiefly at Oſtenhanger. In the Wars in France, where he performed many celebrated Exploits, he had the Misfortune to be taken Priſoner, and was detained for ſeveral Years. At his coming home he married Elizabeth Chichele, and entering afterwards into the Quarrel between the Houſes of York and Lancaſter, he fell a Martyr to the Cauſe of the former, at the ſecond Battle of St. Albans, in the 38 Hen. VI. His Wife, according to Stow, was, ſecondly, married to Sir Ralph Aſhton, Knight-Marſhall; and thirdly, to Sir Edward Bourchier, Uncle to Bourchier, Earl of Eſſex; but, continues he, ſhe never had a Child [h]. It is certain, however, that Sir Thomas Crioll left two Daughters, and as we know of no other Wife that he had, and as the Deſcendants of one of them may be eaſily traced down to the preſent Times, this Matter may merit a farther Enquiry from thoſe who are at leiſure, or may think themſelves concerned, to make it [i].

Survey. p. 227.

Thus we have been able to account, in ſome Meaſure, for nineteen of the four and twenty Children of John Chichele. The other five ſeem to be ſo totally ſunk in Oblivion, that we cannot entertain the moſt diſtant hopes of retrieving them. Perhaps the Reader thinks the Catalogue long enough already. But there is a pleaſing Kind of Enthuſiaſm, which attends even the making ſuch trifling Diſcoveries as theſe we have here collected, when they relate to one, for whom every Principle of Gratitude demands our Love and Veneration: And as this Publication is deſigned chiefly for the Uſe of thoſe, who either lie under, or are deſirous of incurring, theſe Obligations, the Editor will not imagine that he hath entirely thrown away his Pains in endeavouring to ſatisfy an innocent, if not laudable, Curioſity, by placing this Series of Relics of the Chichele Family before them.

N.B. Theſe Deſcents are taken from Ant. Wood's Account of the Family of Thomas Darrel, F. A. S. 1628. who died in Oxford in the Year 1655. But if this be a true one, there is a Miſtake in placing the Cinquefoil to the Name of Thomas in N° 109. 8. for there is nothing here that correſponds with that Table. Be this as it will; it is certain that all the Darrels, who have hitherto been o. the College, were of the Kindred of the Founder, and are all marked with a Cinquefoil, as ſuch, in the Regiſters: But as none of the Pedigrees, now remaining in the Archives, make any mention of this Walter Darrel, of Abingdon, the Editor knew not to what Table to refer him, and his Deſcendants. (See Ant. Wood's Collect. N° 8466. in Muſ. Aſhm.)

A complete Catalogue of the Fellows of All Souls College, who have been admitted to Fellowſhips on the Claim of Conſanguinity to the Founder.

THE Editor of theſe Tables will think himſelf much obliged to any Gentlemen, who will give themſelves the trouble to point out to him any material Miſtakes which may be found in them. And, as it may be in the Power of many Perſons to make theſe Pedigrees much more extenſive, by giving Accounts of the Iſſue and Deſcendants of the reſpective Marriages contained in them, which relate to their own Families, or lie within the Compaſs of their Knowlege and Acquaintance; all ſuch Additions, as well as Corrections, (with the Authorities ſpecified on which they are founded, and attended with the Names and Places of Abode of the Perſons ſending them,) ſhall be gratefully acknowleged, and applied to their proper Uſes, if a farther Occaſion ſhall offer. All ſuch Letters of Information may be directed to the Editor of the Stemmata, under Cover to Mr James Fletcher, or Mr Daniel Prince, Bookſellers in OXFORD.

CORRECTIONS, AND VERY LARGE ADDITIONS

TABLES OF DESCENTS FROM

THOMAS CHICHELE,

COUNTY OF NORTHAMPTON;

ALL WHOSE DESCENDANTS ARE HELD TO BE ENTITLED TO FELLOWSHIPS IN ALL SOULS COLLEGE, OXFORD; BY VIRTUE OF THEIR CONSANGUINITY TO ARCH-BISHOP CHICHELE, THE FOUNDER.

OXFORD,
AT THE CLARENDON PRESS. MDCCLXXV.

PREFACE.

IT was eaſy to foreſee, that the Publication of the STEMMATA CHICHELEANA would be productive of many new Diſcoveries, of Families who could deduce their Deſcent from Thomas Chichele, the Father of the Founder of ALL SOULS COLLEGE. The Editor, therefore, of that Collection, thought proper, by an Advertiſement at the End of it, to expreſs his Deſire of receiving, "from any Gentlemen, who ſhould ſpecify "their names and places of Abode, an Account of the Iſſue and De- "ſcendants of the reſpective Marriages contained in it, which related to "their own Families, or lay within the Compaſs of their Knowlege and "Acquaintance:" And to promiſe, "that all ſuch Additions ſhould be "gratefully acknowleged, and applied to their proper Uſes, if a farther "Occaſion ſhould offer." The Intelligence received, in conſequence of this Invitation, makes a part of the following Supplement; and the Names of the Gentlemen, who have been the Contributors, are reſpectively noticed at the End of each Table.

BUT it was not the Editor's Intention to confine himſelf, in the preſent Publication, to the Contributions of his Correſpondents. He hath, on this Occaſion, had recourſe to whatever Records lay within his Reach in the Univerſity, which he thought could give any genealogical Intelligence of the Family of Chichele. Of the chief of theſe, or ſuch as he hath made moſt frequent uſe of, he thinks himſelf obliged to give ſome Account.

A FEW years ago it was the good fortune of the College to purchaſe, at the Sale of the late Mr Anſtis's Library, ſeveral large Volumes in Manuſcript of his own Writing, chiefly relating to the Hiſtory and Conſtitution of All Souls College, and eſpecially to the Caſe of Founder's Kindred. In one of theſe Volumes he had begun to trace the Pedigrees of the Nobility and chief Gentry of the Kingdom, who were intituled to this Claim of Kindred; and to this Collection had prefixed the following Title: Stemma Genealogicum Chicheleanum exhibens omnes fere familias a Roberto et Wilhelmo (fratribus Henrici Chichele Archiepiſcopi Cantuar.) recta linea deſcendentes. This was to have followed as an Appendix to one of his Tracts; as we may collect from a Letter of his to Dr George Clarke, dated "Mortlake 29 Aug. 1728," in in which he ſays, "It is above twenty Years ſince, there fell into my "hands a Pamphlet intitled, The Caſe of Founder's Kinſmen, &c,[a] and as "I then had leiſure enough, I took the Pains to examine it, and to write "an Anſwer in Latin to it, which now lies by me, with an Appendix "containing the ſeveral diſtinct families (whereof ſome are Noble[b] and "others of the firſt Quality) deſcended from the two Brothers of the "Founder; who, and their Deſcendants, muſt be allowed to be ſtrictly "Conſanguinei et de Genere, though I believe very few of theſe families (if "any of them) know this their Kindred." He afterwards hints, "that "he might be forced to print his Book, which, ſays he, I think ſhould be "rather locked up in your Archives than be made publick." Accordingly, a few Years after, his Son having failed in his Pretenſions to a Fellowſhip at All Souls, he thought himſelf forced to print. The Impreſſion, however, was left unfiniſhed by his Death; and the compleat Manuſcript, (according to his more favourable Deſtination of it) together with one of the incompleat printed Copies, is now locked up in the Archives of the College.

THE chief Contents of this Appendix[c] are the ſame which have been publiſhed already in the Stemmata Chicheleana; and thus far it ſerves only to [a] It was ſuppoſed to be written by Sir Nathaniel Lloyd, and publiſhed about the Year 1700.

[b] The Chichele Blood was very early introduced into the Families of Vere, Howard, Montagu, Harvey and Roper. This hath given it a very ſpeedy Diffuſion into the Familics of the Nobility in general; ſo that at this time we may reckon more than one Hundred and twenty Peers of England, beſides many of Scotland and Ireland, who are deſcended from Thomas Chichele, the Father of the Founder of All Souls College.

[c] There is another Appendix ſubjoined to this Tract, in the Manuſcript, which Mr Anſtis hath not mentioned in his Letter to Dr Clarke. Having eſtabliſhed his Deſcent from Thomas Chichele, he goes on to ſhew that he is likewiſe deſcended from King Edward the Firſt; and ſeems to take no little Pride in the diſcovery. He enters on this part of his Work with the following Introduction.

Tabulas Majorum meorum
Genealogicas
Poſteriſque meis forſan Gratas
Ex Archivis, Deplomatibus,
Scriptiſque coætaneis,

Manu mea propria exaravi
JOHANNES ANSTIS.

Cum neſcire Proavum ſuum Cenſorem fuiſſe, teſte Tullio, turpe ſit, turpius ſane foret ſe Atavis editum Regibus ignorare; præſertim cum, juxta Juriſconſultos, Nobilitas a Regio ſanguine proveniens ad Poſteros in infinitum progrediatur: Rogo ergo vehementer Lectorem, ne arrogantiæ ſed Pietati noſtræ tribuat, quod non tantum a ROBERTO CHICHELÆO, fratre HENRICI Archiepiſcopi Cantuarienſis, in ſtemmate clare, plane, ac ingenue deſcripto, ſed ab EDWARDO REGE ANGLIÆ, hujus nominis poſt Conqueſtum primo, altius genus petam et deducam. Id etiam mihi faciendum putavi, ut, ORTU TAM ILLUSTRI meo cognito, Cuſtodis et Sociorum Collegii Chichelæani benevolentiam felicius conciliarem: Quod maxime optatum ſi tandem impetravero, non ſolum ingens operæ pretium, ſummumque Beneficium, ſed etiam Honoris ampliſſimum Teſtimonium ab iis accepiſſe gaudebo.

The Family of Anſtis is not the only one that can boaſt of mixing the Royal Blood with that of Chichele. (See the Note to N° 320.) One would have thought, however, that Garter King at Arms might have ſeen the Vanity of this kind of Boaſting; eſpecially as, in the very ſame Page, he had quoted a Paſſage from Seneca, which ſets this ſort of Merit in its true Light, viz. Neminem Regem non ex ſervis eſſe oriundum, neminem non ſervum ex Regibus. Omnia iſta longa varietas miſcuit, et ſurſum deorſum verſavit. Epiſt. 44.

add Authority to that Collection. But there are ſome new Tables in Mr Anſtis, which did not lie open to the Diſcovery of the Editor of the Stemmata. Some of theſe have produced a very plentiful Harveſt of Kindred; and they are all made uſe of in the preſent Supplement.

THE Collections of Dr Rawlinſon and Dr Browne Willis, in the Bodleian Library, have been carefully examined, and found of great ſervice; eſpecially in lengthening out the Pedigrees of ſeveral old Families, which were but barely touched upon by Mr Anſtis.

BUT the greateſt Aſſiſtance hath been received, as will be ſeen by the frequent References made to them, from the Viſitation Books of ſeveral of the Counties of England, now in the Library of Queen's College, and formerly belonging to Sir Joſeph Williamſon. A great Number of new Acquiſitions have been made to the Stemmata from theſe Records; and the Editor cannot omit this Opportunity of returning his Thanks to the Gentlemen of that Society, for the eaſy Acceſs to them in which they have always indulged him.

IT may be proper, perhaps, to remind the Peruſers of the following Tables, that where the Families of the Nobility or Baronets are concerned, the Authenticity of them will, in general, be found to depend on the Publications of Dugdale, Segar, Collins, the Engliſh Baronetage, &c; though it was thought unneceſſary to ſpecify theſe Authorities in the reſpective Tables.

UPON the whole, the Editor hath taken particular care not to admit any thing into this Collection, but what he was well perſuaded would ſtand the Teſt of the Examination of the College, whenever a regular Proof ſhould be called for. He hath checked many Accounts ſent in to him, by better Evidence within his own Reach, and rejected them. Some of his Correſpondents, therefore, muſt not be ſurpriſed if they find their Contributions have been made no uſe of in this Publication. They were frequently founded on Miſtakes and Inadvertencies, and a Want of ſufficient Criticiſm in genealogical Enquiries; at leaſt the Editor will candidly believe ſo, and not imagine that any of them were intended to impoſe upon his Ignorance and Credulity.

THOUGH it is not his Intention to be concerned in any farther Publication of the Pedigrees of the Chichele Blood; he thinks proper to give Notice in this place, that whatever well authenticated Intelligence ſhall be ſent in to him, of Families which have eſcaped his Diſcovery, it ſhall be thankfully received and carefully preſerved. For this purpoſe, it is his Deſign to keep always by him an exact Regiſter of all ſuch Intelligence; and to take what care he can, that it may be handed down to future Succeſſions in the College. All Letters to the Editor of the Stemmata Chicheleana may be directed, as before, under Cover to Mr James Fletcher, or Mr Daniel Prince, Bookſellers in OXFORD.

11 Henry Longville, living, 1740.

10 Sir Edward Longville, Bart. of N. S. — Catherine = Roger Jones, V. of Ranelagh. — Elizabeth. N° 356. — Adolphia, mar. John Wolverſton. Vif. Bucks. 1634. — Charles Longville, Lord Grey, of Ruthyn. 16 Car. I. ob. 1643. See N° 355. — Grey Longville, of Shidlington, Bedds; Anceſtor to Grey Longville, Bath, King at Arms.

11 Sir Thomas Longville, Bart. — Catherine = Thomas Gibbs, of Hunington, com. Warw. — Heſter. See N° 357. — Elizabeth, mar. Samuel Bland, ſon of Sir ... Bland, com. Ebor. — Margaret. See N° 358. — Penelope, a Nun. — Edward.

12 Sir Edward Longville, ob. ſ. p. — Margaret = Sir William Stych, Bart. of Enfield, Middleſex. — Elizabeth = Sir M. Stapleton, Knight, of Carleton, in com. Ebor.

12 Sir Thomas Longville. — Mary = John Lawton, of Lawton, in Cheſhire. — Elizabeth = 1. William Mainwaring. 2. Geo. Hope, of Brawton, Flints.

13 Robert Lawton, of Lawton.

* She is called Anne in ſome Pedigrees in the College of Arms; and by Segar, Maud.—It is neceſſary to obſerve here, that this account of the marriages of Sir John Longville differs from that which is given in the Engliſh Baronetage, Vol. V. p. 350. Edit. 1741. where it is ſaid "that Sir J. Longville married two wives; firſt Joan, "daughter of Sir Rob. Treſham, Knight, by whom he had no Iſſue; ſecondly Anne, daughter of Laurence Saunders, "and relict of Bartholomew Tate, of De la Prè, in Northamptonſhire, Eſq; by whom he had four ſons, 1. Tho- "mas; 2. Arthur; 3. John; and 4. Richard, who died ſ. p." But this account is not ſupported by any one authority, and is contradicted by Segar, Anſtis, the books in the Herald's Office, and the collections of Rawlinſon and Browne Willis, all which agree in making the daughter of Sir Ralph Haſtings, whatever her name was, the firſt wife of Sir John Longville; and in making no mention of Anne Saunders, the relict of Bartholomew Tate. And, perhaps, this matter may be thoroughly cleared up, if we look into the Viſ. Book of Northamptonſhire, 1617. p. 92. where we find that Anne, the daughter of Laurence Saunders, of Harrington, married 1. .... Biſford, 2. .... Wadham, 3. Bartholomew Tate, of De La Prè; and 4. Thomas (and not Sir John) Longville, of Wolverton, Bucks. This Thomas was undoubtedly the eldeſt ſon of Sir John Longville; who, as well as his brothers, John and Richard, died without iſſue. It is ſaid in one of Rawlinſon's books, that Thomas, John and Richard were natural children; and that Sir John Longville had no legitimate iſſue, but Arthur and Mary. It is agreed, on all ſides, that he had no child by the daughter of Treſham.

Sir John Peſhall of Horſley, and the Authority for this Aſſertion is given in the Margin thus, Ex inform. rev. M^r^ Peſhall, de Guilford, in com. Surr. What the rev. Mr Peſhall grounds his Information upon we know not; but it is contradicted by the Baronettage, Edit. 1720. Vol. I. p. 389. where the Lady is ſaid to have been the daughter of John Harcourt of Rampton (or Ranton) in Com. Staff. And this Account is confirmed by the Viſitation of Kent taken in the year 1619, where ſhe is called filia Johannis Harcourt, de Ranton; and by the Viſitation of Staffordſhire, 1583, where ſhe is noticed as ... filia nupta Johanni Perſhall. The family of the Harcourts of Ranton in Staffordſhire was indeed a Branch of that of Stanton Com. Oxon; but they had been divided, for two or three Generations, before the Marriage of Agnes Darrel into the Family of Stanton, as may be ſeen in the laſt mentioned Viſitation Book of Com. Staff. 1583, Fam. Harcourt of Ranton. We cannot therefore, in the Face of ſo much Evidence to the contrary, admit the Family of the Peſhalls to a ſhare of the Blood of Chichele, by Catherine Harcourt, the ſuppoſed Relict of John Herle.

The name of Juſtinian was not known in the Family of Barby ; and was introduced into that of the Iſhams of Lamport, after the marriage of Sir John Iſham with the ſiſter of Sir Juſtinian Lewyn ; his ſon Sir Juſtinian Iſham being the firſt who was ſo named, and who, being born in the year 1610, was nearly of the ſame age with this Elizabeth. She is expreſsly mentioned in the Eng. Baronetage, Edit. 1741. Art. ISHAM, Vol. II. p. 36. as the daughter of Gregory Iſham of Barby, by his wife Elizabeth Catelyne; and as the wife of Thomas Burrard of Lymington. The name of Elizabeth is likewiſe to be found among the daughters of Gregory Iſham in the Viſ. of Northamptonſhire 1617; where ſhe is named as the youngeſt, except three, of his numerous Progeny of ſeventeen children ; and was probably at that time about four or five years of age.

✿ Dr Roger Gifford was elected Fellow of All-Souls, as a Founder's Kinsman, in the Year 1563; but his Pedigree, deducing his Descent from Thomas Chichele, (as is the Case of some others, see List of Kindred STEMM. CHICH. p. 156.) is not to be found in the Archives of the College. There is no doubt, however, but that the Descendants of him, and his Brother George, would have their Claim of Kindred to the Founder admitted, on their appearing as Candidates at an Election. It has been thought proper, in the above Table, to insert the Ancestors of Roger Gifford, and their Marriages, (both on the side of his Father and Mother,) up to the Time of the Founder; in order to give as much Ground as could be obtained, for discovering, by future Enquiries, the Connection between him and Thomas Chichele. Hitherto, indeed, there seems to be no room for forming Conjectures on this Subject; unless we may be allowed to suppose that his Consanguinity might come through the Family of Andrewes, by the Marriage of Agnes, the Daughter of Apner Andrewes, with Thomas Winslow; whose Daughter and coheir Agnes, married John Gifford: (Desc. 2 and 3.) What may give some little Pretence for such a surmise is, that in the Year 1558 (five Years before the Election of Roger Gifford,) a Person of the Name of that Family, John Andrewes, was elected Fellow, as a Kinsman of the Founder. And from this circumstance, perhaps, we may be allowed to suppose that Richard Andrewes, whom the Archbishop appointed the first Warden of his new Foundation, and who was his great Favourite, might be of the same Family, and his near Relation. However this may be, we have nothing in this matter better than Conjecture to go upon; there being no Pedigree of John Andrewes in the Archives of the College, any more than of Roger Gifford.
